Raebareli city being one of the prime cities of Uttar Pradesh holds its roots in Hindi art and literature. This province has been the birthplace of many famous writers and poets who have transformed the Hindi literature in form of "Dohas" and "Chaupais". The very famous Malik Mohammed Jaisi, whose compositions are immemorial and superlative belonged to Raebareli. The highly spirited people of Raebareli have fought courageously for the freedom of India from British stronghold.
